Dear Ms. McNabb,

As you asked, before Christmas I went to my local office supply company and left the Playboy manuscripts to be xeroxed and sent to you by Greyhound.

To save you the cost of their making a special trip out into the country to return my originals I told them to hold the manuscripts until they had to deliver here.

They made the other delivery today.

I then paid them for the xeroxing. They were kind enough to make no charge for their special trip to Greyhound.

The receipt for $20.14 is enclosed.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg
